

Place: _____

Date: _____

Registration:

Take entry forms and payments, record bib numbers and racer names on registration sheets. You can still race and do this job.

>From 11:30-12:10

#1:

#2:

#3:

* Starter:

Starter starts all racers on 1 minute intervals using stop watch, flip starting # chart.

>From 12:30-1:30 or so, depending on number of racers.

#1:

* Handlers:

Help hold dogs at the start line.

>From 12:30-1:30 or so, depending on number of racers.

#1:

* Timers:

Record finish times for all racers using stop watch by bib #.

>From 12:40-2 or so, depending on number of racers.

#1:

#2:

* Mathematicians:

Subtract start time from finish time for all racers, record them on a sheet, and sort into finish order. Work inside the farm house where it's warm! No PhD in math required, it's all subtraction and sorting. You can still race and do this job.

>From 1:30-2 or so, depending on number of racers and if you're racing. (Need at least one, but two or three make the work go faster and allow for checking each other's work.)

#1:

#2:

#3:

Reporter:

Write-up race results and any funny stories from race for publishing in News-Miner. You can still race and do this job any time after the race but must be turned into the News Miner by Sunday evening for publication the next day.

#1: